

International Palliative Care and Hospice Day - 2023

Organizers: NGO Dizhvanagi, Latvia Children Palliative Care Society, PACED, Baltic Palliative care Association.

Time, duration: 14th of October, 10:00 - 16:15,

Language: English, Russian (translation during the event will be available),

Registration link:

https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZMud-2tpj0tGtECUNA91fy9oVkh7_p3BUXO#/registration

International Conference in Palliative Care: Unusual topics in palliative care.

10:00-11:00	Registration, possibility to talk for participant about their actual problems	Julija Cirule-Galuza	Possibility for participants, who come earlier, to talk together and to tell about themselves
11:00-11:20	Greeting from teams/ participants, information about World hospice and palliative care day history	Speakers: Julija Cirule-Galuza Marius Ciurlionis Anda Jansone Ira Chernozhukov	Notes: (please, write in Your ideas about Your possible participation)
11:20 - 12:00	Aggression, autoaggression	Evija Silina	Aggressive behavior in patients and their relatives
12:00- 12:30		Indre Bakaniene	Management of self-harm behavior
12:30 – 13:00		Aleksandr Volchanskiy	A philosophical and psychological view on the causes of aggression and auto-aggression in palliative patients, staff, specialists and relatives. Ways to work with it.
13:00 - 13:15		Vicktorija Shteinhardt	Self-harm and auto-aggression in kids with AST and problems with sensory integration.
13:15 - 13:30	Coffee break

13:30 - 14:30	Sexuality and palliative care	Anna Grikevich	Sexuality and patients with severe disabilities
14:30- 15:00	Working together as team in difficult situations	Varis Bogdanovs	Anger and Aggression
15:00-15:30	Clinical cases - workshops	Julija Cirule-Galuza Anna Gorchakova Marius Ciurlionis	Discussions in groups.
15:30-16:00	Clinical cases - coming together	Each group presents their clinical case with possible solutions/tactics
16:00-16:15	Conclusions, future plans.	Julija Cirule-Galuza Marius Ciurlionis Ira Chernozhukov	Feedback from participants. Information about future cooperation